

Money Programs for Seniors

1. Money Minders – Southern Maine Area Agency on Aging

- Help with balancing checkbook.
- Paying bills in a timely manner.
- Opening, organizing, and sending out mail.
- Writing out checks for your signature.
- Dealing with creditors

Money minders is a confidential bill paying assistance service for people age 60 and over or for individuals who have disabilities and who are having difficulty maintaining control of their finances.

CONTACT: 207-396-6500 or 1-800-427-7411

2. Money Matters – York County Community Action

- Coaches help the senior set goals and create a spending plan
- Help create assets and savings
- Free tax prep
- Assistance with starting a business or changing careers
- Dealing with debt

CONTACT: Rhoda Butler 207-459-2903 or 1-800-965-5762 x 2903 or rhodab@yccac.org

3. Money Management International – Consumer Credit Counseling Service

- Nonprofit community service
- Provide confidential financial guidance
- Free consumer credit counseling services, educational resources, and debt management assistance.

CONTACT: 866-889-9347 or www.moneymanagementinternational.org